LOCATION

Lime Grove House is a landmark building prominently situated on the eastern approach to the heart of St Helier's thriving town centre and business district. Well established businesses including Jersey Telecom, Mourant, Brooks MacDonald and Digital Jersey Hub operate in very close proximity and the key retail/leisure orientated areas of the town are but a few minutes' walk away. Green Street multi-storey car park is sited immediately adjacent as is the ring road and tunnel approach to La Route du Fort roundabout.

DESCRIPTION

Lime Grove House provides a purpose built four storey office building which has been fitted out to a high standard and provides a contemporary mix of open plan and cellular offices/meeting rooms together with ample breakout areas creating a modern community space. The building boasts on-site parking facilities for 31 vehicles and covered cycle storage.

It should be noted that the usability of all operational floor space has been maximised configuration wise, and emphasis placed on the creation of a bright and air working environment benefiting from the following general amenities:

- Full access raised floors incorporating 150mm clear void to all areas
- High quality suspended ceiling incorporating category two recessed lighting
- Comfort cooling/heating throughout office areas
- Full fibre optic connectivity
- Two 10no. person passenger lifts
- Hardwood doors, frames and skirting to all areas
- Separate male and female WC facilities on each floor
- On site secure underground parking and covered cycle storage and shower facilities
